After completing the recitation of the Quran, one often wonders about the appropriate Dua to recite. As one completes the sacred book of Allah, they express gratitude for the guidance and wisdom imparted through its teachings. In this moment of reflection, the Muslim acknowledges the blessings and mercy of their Lord, seeking continued protection and strength to embody the virtues of the Quran in every aspect of life. This supplication, Dua Khatam Al Quran, is a cherished tradition that signifies a Muslim's commitment to the Quranic teachings, humbly acknowledging Allah's grace and wisdom. By reciting this Dua, one seeks blessings for their efforts in reciting the Quran, acknowledges the power of prayer, and asks for guidance throughout their life. The benefits of reciting the Quran are numerous, bringing one closer to Allah, earning immense rewards, and benefiting both in this life and the hereafter. Alhamdulillah, reciting the entire Quran is a cherished tradition for Muslims worldwide, filled with heartfelt prayers for acceptance and guidance. May Allah bless their efforts and grant them wisdom, peace, and His divine favor. As you embark on this journey of learning and living the Quran's teachings, may this Dua serve as a reminder to seek guidance on the righteous path. Amen.
