

Continue

Clinical Practice Guideline(s) The guideline,Treatment of Hypertension in Adults Over Age 60 to Higher vs. Lower Targets, was developed by the American College of Physicians and the American Academy of Family Physicians. Key Recommendations Adults over age 60 with persistent systolic blood pressure $\geq$ 150 mm Hg should be treated to achieve a target systolic blood pressure of